

About the AITD Fellow Professional Membership Program

AITD's membership pathway aims to recognise the knowledge, skills, experience and achievements of the training, learning and development and organisational development professions. Fellows and Associate Fellows are the highest tiers in the AITD membership pathway.

AITD Associate Fellows (AFAITD) are training, learning and development, or organisational development professionals with relevant under-graduate qualifications and at least 5 years of experience in the profession.

AITD Fellows (FAITD) are training, learning and development, or organisational development professionals working at a senior level. FAITD members must possess a relevant post-graduate qualification and at least 10 years of experience in the profession.

To apply for Fellow or Associate Fellow membership, applicants must complete this application form and submit it with payment to AITD. Once the application has been assessed, the applicant will be advised of the decision.

Criteria

A person may be appointed as a Fellow/Associate Fellow provided all of the following requirements are met:

Associate Fellow (AFAITD)

- Demonstration of significant contribution to the Learning and Development profession;
- At least 5 years in Training, Learning and Development, or Organisational Development; and
- Undergraduate qualifications in Learning and Development or a related discipline.*

Fellow (FAITD)

- Demonstration of significant contribution to the Learning and Development Profession;
- At least 10 years in Training, Learning and Development, or Organisational Development; and
- Post-graduate qualifications in Learning and Development or a related discipline.*

Qualifications

Please describe your qualifications below and attached copies of your qualifications.

- Associate Fellows must have recognised undergraduate qualifications in Learning and Development or a related discipline. The minimum requirement would be a degree (AQF Level 7).
- Fellows must have recognised postgraduate qualifications in Learning and Development or a related discipline. The minimum requirement would be either:
 - A postgraduate qualification (AQF Level 9/10) in a related discipline, or
 - An undergraduate degree (AQF Level 7) in a related discipline and a postgraduate qualification (AQF Level 8) in a related discipline.

Related disciplines are broad and include the following:

- Vocational Education and Training;
- Human Resources;
- Organisational Development;
- Talent Development;
- eLearning;
- Education;
- Adult Education; and
- Other emerging qualifications in related disciplines where a link to learning and development is evident.

Qualification (e.g. Masters of Adult Education)	Issuing Institution (e.g. University of Technology, Sydney)	Year completed (e.g. 2005)

Add rows as necessary

Where a qualification is not easily identifiable as learning and development or a related discipline, the applicant will need to demonstrate how the qualification meets the requirements. The minimum expectation to demonstrate equivalency would be a sub-major in learning and development or a related discipline.

Qualification (e.g. Master of Business Administration)	Details of relevant units/courses undertaken (e.g. organisational development)	Year completed (e.g. 2005)
