

L&D Project Management MasterClass

Are you ready to move your project management skills from ad-hoc to intentional?
Have you managed projects but never had any formal frameworks for what you know?
Are you managing projects and looking for higher level skills and tools?

This MasterClass covers all key facets of this important area of work as it applies to learning and development professionals. You'll learn the end-to-end process and explore the Project Management Body of Knowledge methodology.

You'll learn about planning, attention to detail and follow up, sourcing appropriate content, facilities, equipment and presenters and the basics of budgeting, marketing and evaluation.

If you want to run complex L&D projects, give your project management experience a strong theoretical framework and learn practical tools and methods then this course is for you.
