Offer ends 31 March 2016.

Speakers include:

Mind-blowing tech Donald Clark

We have seen the World Wide Web irreversibly change the learning landscape with tools and content that billions now use, such as Google, YouTube, Wikipedia, Khan Academy, Moodle, MOOCs. However, we are now seeing smart software and tech emerge that promises to be even more powerful – artificial intelligence/ adaptive, virtual reality to name a few.

Reality Bites: Navigating the Learning Transfer Minefield Emma Weber

Learning transfer expert Emma Weber will help you navigate the minefield of what works and why in successful learning transfer. Emma will help you consider the reality of what you can do from a strategic and practical perspective to create greater impact from your learning initiatives.

Van Gogh on Learning and Performance Support Ger Driesen

Drawing on in-depth research into hundreds of Van Gogh's letters, drawings and paintings, Ger Driesen has arrived at seven principles of learning and performance which are as relevant as ever today. He will share and explore with you how Van Gogh's approach and the 7 principles can be useful today to optimise workplace learning and performance support.

Digital Capabilities: Less technology, more mindset Anne Bartlett-Bragg

Digital capabilities are both personal and collective, they belong to you and your organisation. How will you build your digital capabilities? This session will examine current research and practices and reveal a framework that can become a foundational element to establish your organisation's Digital Quotient.

Plus... hear from learning leaders in major corporations, small business and the public service.

Topics include:

- Collaborative learning
- Case studies from Award Winners
- Reconnecting VET and learning and development
- Creating large scale behaviour change
- Bridging cultures to build careers
- Innovation cultivation
- Workforce analytics data to support L&D initiatives
- Successful change management through mentoring
- Personal branding to build your career
- Marketing L&D within your organisation

Join your professional community for this significant professional development event!

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Cancellation: AITD requires 10 working days written notice for any cancellations. A 20% cancellation fee will be deducted from the refund (and will be considered owing if invoice is unpaid). For cancellations less than 10 working days prior to the conference/workshop there will be no refund and any outstanding monies will be considered owing. A substitute may be sent in the place of the registered delegate for no additional fee with the exception of a non-member replacing a member (the fee difference will be charged). AITD is not liable for any travel, accommodation or other costs that you may have incurred in relation to the cancelled workshop or event. AITD retains the right to cancel a workshop or event and will offer a full refund or transfer.

Payment of fees: Early-bird registration fees must be paid by 31 March 2016 otherwise they will be increased to the standard rate. All registrations must be paid in advance. AITD will take active steps to collect any outstanding fees including engaging a mercantile agency. This form becomes a tax invoice once the registration fee has been paid in full.

International Delegates: Once a booking has been lodged and a full payment received, AITD is able to provide a confirmation letter that can be used for visa purposes. AITD is not able to issue this letter without receipt of full payment. Should any delegate be unsuccessful in obtaining a visa to enter Australia for the purposes of attending the conference, a full refund of paid conference fees will be made. Substitute delegates will be accepted however please be mindful that Australian entry visas are non-transferrable.

Program changes: AITD reserves the right to vary the conference program and speakers where it becomes necessary.

Delegate details: Delegates may be photographed at an AITD event for use in AITD promotional material. Delegates and sponsors may be given a list of all delegates (name and basic contact details only). Receipt of your registration form will signal your acceptance of inclusion on the delegate list. Should you wish to opt-out, please contact AITD to indicate your desire to be removed from a delegate list
